NOT RESPONSIBLE.

"Judge, I think you ought to let me go," said John Hamilton yesterday, when called upon to plead to a charge of having been drunk.

"Why?" asked the Judge. "If you had not been drunk it is not likely that the officer would have brought you here."

"I dare say, Judge, that I was drunk; but it was not my fault if I was in that condition."

"Whose fault was it?"

"Well, you see, Judge, I was foolish enough to make a meal of salt mackerel, boiled ham and corned beef and cabbage last night, and—"

"What has that got to do with your not being at fault for becoming intoxicated?" asked the Judge, interrupting the prisoner.

"I'll tell you, Judge, if you'll wait a minute. You see I forget all about the fact that Spring Valley had shut down the water supply, or I wouldn't have eaten that salt dinner. However, it made me very thirsty, and when I went to get a drink of water—water is my usual drink—I found the faucet dry, and to quench my thirst I had to take something strong from a black bottle. So you see Spring Valley is to blame for this."

The Judge scratched his head for a moment, muttered something that sounded like "Too thin," and ordered Hamilton imprisoned for twenty four hours.

The country editor now takes up his pen to say: "We have received from Hon. Fixem Perkins, member of Congress, several very valuable public documents, for which he will please accept our thanks." Then he lays it down again and calls out to the office boy: "Here, John; throw these into the waste-paper barrel," adding to himself: "Old junk's increasing pretty fast these days—great country, great country."

THE EVILS OF PAINTING And their Remedy.

"It has been said with much truth, too, that house painting might, with study and acquirement of taste, resume its rank as a liberal art."—Painters' Manual.

Believing the above to be true, A. B. KERR has now re-organized his system of working the business in Honolulu. In the first place he has secured the services of that celebrated artist, Mr. MAX KOHN, formerly of San Francisco, whose work in the line of plain and decorative paper-hanging, frescoing, &c., is up to the present time unsurpassed, and on these Islands has never been equalled. For house painting jobs first-class mechanics only will be employed. In future patrons can depend upon my filling every order on the most scientific basis known to the trade.

The Sign Painting and Lettering department will be permanently presided over by Mr. GEO. STRATMEYER, (further comment unnecessary.)

P.S.—Send for designs of frescos for ceiling and cornices. Something new; and if you want any glass put in call at
